1. Praise the Lord, each tribe and nation,
Praise Him with a joyous heart;
Ye who know His full salvation,
Gather now from every part;
Let your voices glorify,
In His temple, God on high.

2. He's our God and our Creator,
We, His flock and chosen seed;
He, our Lord and Liberator,
Us from sin and peril freed;
And at last His flock shall rest
In the mansions of the blest.

3. Give Him thanks in all His portals;
In the courts His deeds proclaim;
Hither come, ye ransomed mortals,
Glorify our Savior's Name.
Ever kind and loving, He
Keeps His faith eternally.

VIII. HYMN . . . . . Congregation

1. A mighty fortress is our God,
A trusty Shield and Weapon;
He helps us in our every need
That hath us now o'ertaken.
The old malignant foe
Now means us deadly woe:
Deep guile and cruel might
Are his dread arms in fight,
On earth is not his equal.

2. With might of ours can naught be done,
Soon were our loss effected;
But for us fights the Valiant One
Whom God Himself elected.
Ask ye who this may be?
Christ Jesus, it is He,
As Lord of Hosts adored,
Our only King and Lord,
He holds the field forever.

3. The Word they still shall let remain,
Nor any thanks have for it;
He's by our side upon the plain,
With His good gifts and Spirit.
Take they, then, what they will,
Life, goods, yea all; and still,
E'en when their worst is done,
They yet have nothing won,
The kingdom ours remaineth.

—Martin Luther.
